

BIG BUDDHA

Holiday Trends

Metallic Shoulder bags

Celebrity bag buffs like Jessica Alba know that nothing dresses up an outfit quite like a touch of bold metallic. The Big Buddha Blondie bag mixes rich metallic with suede trim and a drizzle of studded detailing. With a single shoulder strap that stays snug on your body, whether you're dressed up or down the Blondie is the Fall bag you'll be sure to take with you everywhere!

Patent Hobos

Juggling a family and career can make a girl feel like following hot trends is out of the question. But busy fashionistas like Jennifer Lopez don't make that sacrifice and neither should anyone else! The Michael bag by Big Buddha has plenty of room for everything you need while running errands about town. With a grommet laced top that cinches and snaps closed-you can keep your goodies safe and accessible. Decorated with shiny gold hardware in a luxurious patent body-wear the Michael while you're on the go and get ready to glam up your life this Holiday season.

Studded Hobos

Make a statement this season with the ultra-stylish studded Soho bag. Hip and trendy like its namesake—the Soho combines glam rock with boho-chic, mixing sexy gold studs and layered fringe tiers in a simple hobo silhouette. Even celebrity hotties like Halle Berry know that you can't leave home without this great fall look.

Blooming Rose Totes

Big Buddha's Rose bag is the talk of the town this Hoilday season. Gossip girl Blake Lively adds instant style to her outfit with a Ruche blossom tote-the perfect companion for strutting around the city- day or night. This roomy bag has space for all your essentials and then some! With large double handles and a lightweight body- when carrying the Rose bag you won't have to compromise style for comfort and function.
